M.S. in Marketing

Learning Outcomes

Students will:

- Be able to appropriately apply relevant concepts and knowledge to applied business problems.

- Be able to use analytical and reflective skills in making decisions.

- Be able to communicate effectively in writing and in oral presentations.

- Be able to recognize and analyze ethical problems within applied business situations, choose a resolution, and justify that ethical choice.