B.S. in Digital Cinema

Learning Outcomes

Students will be able to:

- Write a screenplay in proper format employing standard narrative conventions.
- Demonstrate an understanding of visual style.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the pre-production process.
- Perform all basic tasks of all crew positions.
- Show the ability to direct a crew and talent on location.
- Show a working knowledge of visual composition, cinematic exposure standards and basic semiotics.
- Show the ability to use the principles of invisible editing and montage.
- Show the ability to advanced composting techniques.
- Utilize color correction processes in finishing a film.
- Demonstrate an understanding of all basic tasks of the post-production sound process.

Last Update: 2014