M.S. in Public Service Management

Learning Outcomes

Student can:

- Explain relevant public service issues to target audiences in the appropriate written and oral formats.
- Apply an ethical framework in making an organizational decision on a current moral dilemma.
- Determine the interactive roles of the business, government, and nonprofit sectors in securing the public welfare.
- Analyze the leadership skills essential to managing public service organizations.
- Demonstrate their research competencies in a capstone project through a multi-step self-assessment process.