Dean of Students Office

Learning Outcomes

- Students who participate in Dean of Students programs and services will utilize appropriate university/community resources to manage personal, professional and academic challenges.

- Students who engage the Dean of Students Office will utilize self-assessment strategies and develop skills to become self-advocates.

- Students who participate in Dean of Students Office student judicial, intervention, or crisis response will be able to communicate community standards and take responsibility for choices and actions.