Office of Religious Diversity & LOOP

Learning Outcomes

Students who participate in Office of Religious Diversity programs:

- Will integrate their spiritual/religious/philosophical tradition’s beliefs into their daily lives.
- Will build skills to lead civic engagement efforts and build community in pursuit of justice.
- Will consider their own and others’ spiritual/religious and cultural practices and traditions.
- Will commit to Vincentian spirituality and values that embrace the inherent dignity of all human beings.
- Will demonstrate knowledge of the lives of Vincent de Paul, Louise de Marillac, and Frederic Ozanam and articulate connections between the Vincentian legacy and their own life experience.

Last Update: 2014