Office of Student Involvement

Learning Outcomes

Students who participate in Student Involvement programs and activities will be able to:

- Apply communication, critical thinking, and professional skills to involvement opportunities on campus.
- Participate thoughtfully and respectfully as members of an inclusive community.
- Develop a sense of self, awareness of others, and understand their responsibility for choices and actions when working cooperatively or collaboratively with others.