Residential Education

Learning Outcomes

Students who engage in Residential Education programs will be able to:

- Demonstrate reflective decision-making.
- Articulate diverse perspectives of others in the community.
- Articulate the mutually beneficial relationship between themselves and the multiple communities of which they are part.
- Demonstrate personal responsibility and respect for others.