M.F.A. in Acting

Learning Outcomes

Theatre students will be able to:

- Identify and describe the historical and theoretical significance of a range of theatrical artists, works and artistic approaches from antiquity to the present, encompassing a broad range of periods, cultures, and styles.
- Demonstrate the ability to synthesize and apply elements of their education and training in classes, rehearsals, and productions.
- Demonstrate the ability to participate in theatrical production in a professional manner, with discipline, respect, and maturity.
- Demonstrate the role of the theatre practitioner as an active member of society and of the cultural and social impact of the arts.

M.F.A. in Acting

Students will be able to:

- Demonstrate the mastery of acting truthfully from moment-to-moment in a variety of theatrical works, periods, and styles.
- Demonstrate the mastery of creating a role within the action of the assignment or production through text analysis, personalization, and imagination.
- Demonstrate an advanced personal practice of improving vocal and physical expressiveness as an actor.
- Demonstrate the ability to create unique, insightful, and compelling work that impacts those who witness it.
- Demonstrate the ability to apply the training to professional opportunities.
- Demonstrate the ability to be entrepreneurial and create original theatrical work.