Spirit of Assessment Award

Call for Nominations

The Office for Teaching, Learning, and Assessment (TLA) is requesting nominations for the Spirit of Assessment Award. This award recognizes an individual who has made extraordinary efforts to promote a culture of assessment at DePaul University.

Award

The recipient of the Spirit of Assessment Award will receive a one-time cash award of $500 and a plaque. This award will be given during the 2016 Teaching and Learning Conference on May 20, 2016.

Criteria

The Spirit of Assessment award recognizes an individual who has worked to promote a culture of assessment at DePaul University. Specifically, the following criteria will be considered when selecting the winner of this award:

- Significance of contribution to promoting a culture of assessment (eg., within a program, department, the institution, etc.)
- Going above and beyond expected job responsibilities
- Impact of the individual’s work with assessment
- Leadership or mentoring role in assessing student learning
- Demonstration of a commitment to assessment over time
- Efforts to share work outside of DePaul University

Nominations

TLA welcomes nominations for individuals who have worked to promote a culture of assessment at DePaul University.

To nominate someone for this award, please write 750 words or less describing the ways in which the nominated individual has promoted a culture of assessment at DePaul. Submissions should include at least two letters of support (750 letters or less) from individuals in addition to the letter of nomination. Nominations and letters that exceed the 750 word limit will not be considered in selection of the award winner.

Please send all nomination materials to TLA: tla@depaul.edu by no later than April 1, 2016.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact either Ruben Parra (rparra1@depaul.edu) or Jen Sweet (jsweet2@depaul.edu).
