

Celebrating Latina Creativity in Chicago

Thursday, April 2nd

5:30 p.m. - Reception

6:00 p.m. - Panel

John R. Cortelyou Commons

2324 North Fremont Street

Join a distinguished panel of artists who will discuss the path of their own creative journeys, examine the ways in which their work has been influenced by Sandra Cisneros and The House on Mango Street, and trace the dynamic relationship between artists and their communities.

Panelists:

- * Bibiana Suarez, Department of Art, Media and Design / DePaul University
- * Irasema Gonzalez, Poet / Founder of Tianguis Books
- * Coya Paz, co-founder of Teatro Luna / The Theatre School / DePaul University
- * Tanya Saracho, co-founder of Teatro Luna / Adapted The House on Mango Street for the stage

A discussion with the audience will conclude the evening.

Part of the 2009 Sor Juana Festival / National Museum of Mexican Art and the 3rd Annual Cesar Chavez Service and Values Series / Steans Center / DePaul University

Co-sponsors: The Department of English, Latin American and Latino Studies Program and The Women's Center

For more information: (773) 325-7839 or (773) 325-7558

Free and open to the public.

Bibiana Suarez

Irasema Gonzalez

Tanya Saracho

Coya Paz

One Book, One Chicago / Spring 2009

Celebrating the 25th Anniversary of The House on Mango Street