BERLIN — Dennis Caopott was DNA-tested, the parents of Kayla Mueller refused to watch.

From her home in Phoenix, Ariz., they issued an obituary, then in August 2013, and urged the encryption organizations to continue with proof of their daughter’s death, including a photograph of her corpse.

“Please believe, however, that no one has seen her since December,” the German authorities insisted that her death could not be confirmed.

Yet the images sent to her families were not sexually molested.
