

LOC Resources for Students with Special Needs

TPS (Teaching with Primary Sources) Journal archive issues dealing with accessibility:

<http://www.loc.gov/teachers/tps/quarterly/archive.html#accessibility>

National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped (NLS): Free general-topic library resources (<http://www.loc.gov/nls/>) as well as specific learning disabilities sources.

<http://www.loc.gov/nls/reference/circulars/learning.html#resources>

Federal Registry for Educational Excellence (FREE): A collection of digital teaching and learning resources created and maintained by the federal government and public/private organizations.

<http://free.ed.gov/>

E-Resources portal at the LOC: <http://eresources.loc.gov/>

LOC Virtual Reference Shelf on Education: <http://www.loc.gov/rr/askalib/virtualref.html#education>

LOC Wise Guide Archives: (2002-2011) The Wise Guide highlights interesting and undiscovered treasures from the online resources of the LOC via short entries. This project was later replaced by the many LOC blogs currently in publication. <http://www.loc.gov/wiseguide/dec11/>