"The Last Full Measure: The Civil War and its Legacy"

Tue 3/15 & Thu 3/17 | 4:30-8:30pm | DePaul Main Campus (Lincoln Park)

Registration: <https://goo.gl/1l43c5>

The Civil War is the pivotal event in American history, and continues to this day to shape our nation's geography, economy, politics, and culture. In this program, you'll master strategies for integrating these topics such as slavery, war reporting, the ethics of Abraham Lincoln, and the history of photography into your classroom to promote inquiry-based learning, critical thinking, and Common Core alignment.

This program is open only to educators who have completed our Level I program. For those who have completed the Level I program, we welcome teachers of all subjects and grade levels, as well as librarians and media directors, administrators, and pre-service teachers. Teachers who have completed a previous Level II program are also welcome. Participants earn 8 CPDUs for program completion.

To register, please visit <https://goo.gl/1l43c5> and complete the form there. Space is limited, so register today!
